A dental hygienist is "the true right hand and best friend that a dentist has ever had," Dr. Clifford Johnson, president of the Connecticut State Dental Association, said at the capping ceremony of the freshman dental hygiene class last Sunday.

The ceremony, which was held in the Dana Lecture Hall, was attended by many officials of both dental hygienists' associations and of the University. Among those who spoke were President James Halsey, Dr. Charles A. Dana; Dr. Clifford Johnson; Mrs. Vincent Brennan, president of the Connecticut Dental Hygienists' Association; Mrs. Rena Chernick, Trustee of the American Dental Hygienists' Association; and Dr. Robert H. Strang, Director of the Fones School of Dental Hygiene.

Forty-eight girls were capped in the afternoon ceremony, which was the 13th to be held since the founding of the Fones School.

The program opened with an address by Dr. Halsey, who praised Alfred Fones, both as founder of the school and as a community leader. He also praised Dana, who made the new building and its facilities possible.

This was followed by a short but humorous talk by Dr. Johnson, who quipped that the marriage rate among dental hygienists is much too high. He also thanked the girls for choosing dental hygiene as their profession, stating that theirs was an invaluable job.

Mrs. Brennan spoke next and congratulated the freshman class for choosing a field where the

Grant Given to English Teacher By State Dept.

Donald H. Kuhlman, instructor in English at the University, received a grant from the U.S. State Department to serve as visiting professor of drama at the University College and National Theatre in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia.

Kuhlman has taken a leave of absence from the University for the spring semester and plans to return in time for the opening of fall semester classes in September. His assignment in Addis Ababa will begin on Feb. 25, for a four and one-half month period ending in July. Following this, Kuhlman plans to go to Brazil in the latter half of July and August to take part in the International Theater Conference at the University of Bahia. He is the author of three short plays collectively entitled "An Ohio Summer," which are being translated into Portuguese and are to be published by the Ministry of Culture and Education in Brazil. Dr. Martin Goncalves, chairman of the School of Theater at the University of Bahia, which is sponsoring the International Theater Conference, will direct the plays during the conference proceedings.

Kuhlman is a graduate of Heidelberg College in Ohio and received an M.F.A. degree in acting and playwriting from Yale. A native of Tiffin, Ohio, he served as chairman of the English department at the Halsted Preparatory School in Yonkers, New York, before joining the University faculty in September, 1960.

FONES SCHOOL CEREMONIES — 48 freshmen and 43 sophomores were capped or pinned in Dana Hall last Sunday. Sophomores among the students pinned include, (L-R): Sandra Best, Judith Bildeau and Marilyn Pollak.

UB Leadership Conference Planned for Near Future

A Leadership Development Conference for University students will be held on March 3 and 4 at Alumni Hall for all students who are interested in securing positions of responsibility in the dormitories next year.

Students who wish to be considered for positions as Resident Assistants or Sponsors in the women's residence halls or as counselors and proctors in the men's residence halls must attend the meetings. Those who are interested in other appointed positions such as membership on the Honor Council should also attend. Anyone interested in elected positions in other clubs and organizations are not required to attend but are strongly urged to do so for their own benefit and that of the organizations.

Registration for the conference, sponsored by Women's Residence Association, Men's Senate, Honor Council, and RA-Sponsor Council, will be from Wednesday, Feb. 21, to Monday, Feb. 26, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in either the men's housing office, South Hall, or in the women's counselor's office, Cooper Hall. Meetings will begin at 8:30 a.m., Saturday, March 3, with sessions lasting until 5 p.m. The final meetings will be held on Sunday from 1-5 p.m.

The conference advisors are Mrs. Olive Wright, Acting Counselor of Women; Kevin O'Sullivan, Director of Men's Housing; Judith Hals, Assistant Counselor of Women; and Lowell Gifford, Assistant Director of Men's Housing.

Included in the group of students and University staff who worked to prepare the conference were Don Bieber, Mrs. Richard Doengas, Barbara Butterfass, Gordon Smilowitz and Dick Bowman; JoAnn Lipton, Rosemary Auletta, Maxine Lambert, Donna Watkins, Annette Choofaia, Judy Stone, Fran Leitner, Carol Leiblein, Linda Margolis, Diane Friedman, Gerald Pflugh, Richard Lorrigan, and Gary Schwartz.

A student steering committee composed of three men and three women students will continue preparations for the meetings. The three women are Judy Ullian, Senior Resident Assistant; Pat Stirtz, Honor Council; and JoAnn Lipton, WRA Executive Committee. The men have not yet been appointed.

Question and Answer Period To Follow Goldwater Speech

Russia and the African States

by Arthur Sultan
CCUN Coordinator

The Soviet Union has long been demonstrating its power and solidarity in the anti-Western African states. It appears this week that this power has been overreached. The Kremlin has demanded that the United Nations Security Council meet and consider the Congo question. This demand has not only met strong opposition from the West, but some of the Kremlin's staunchest allies have opposed the plan.

Cyrille Adoula, the Premier of the Congo, voiced strong disapproval. Even the United Arab Republic and Ghana, which joined the Soviet Union last year in an unsuccessful attempt to set up a pro-communist Antoine Gizenga as head of the Congolese Government, did not support the Soviet call for a council meeting. Valerian A. Zorin, USSR delegate, made his fight alone and the council adjourned without even placing Mr. Zorin's complaint on the agenda. Zorin was further embarrassed when one of his aides persisted in passing notes to him in the midst of his fight to block adjournment.

The African and Asian states have begun to take a more moderate view of colonial activities, rather than the extremist proposals of the Soviet bloc, reports Thomas J. Hamilton in a recent New York Times article. Nevertheless the Soviet Union may be expected to continue to make extreme proposals in line with their policy of trying to gain control over the anti-colonial states.

The Soviets believe in "Representation without Taxation," while the loyal members of the United Nations have agreed to purchase some $200,000,000 worth of bonds to cover the deficit until next September; the Soviet Union has opposed this under its policy of rule or ruin. The Soviets have been cagey about their payments. Only if they fall two years behind in their total assessments may the General Assembly take their voting procedures to pay. The Soviet Union will find itself in a very embarrassing situation next year, if the new African and Asian countries and the rank and file members

Senator Barry Goldwater has agreed to meet with University students at a question and answer session to take place at 3:30 p.m. in the Student Center on Feb. 21, following the Jacoby Lecture at 2 p.m. in the Gym. The Student Center will be open to all students and the general public on a first-come, first-served basis. No tickets will be required, with space limitations the only qualifying factor.

The question period has been divided into three sections: first, questions from nine major campus organizations; second, questions from the student body; third, spontaneous questions from the audience. In the first two categories, questions must be submitted for consideration to a screening committee no later than Monday, Feb. 19, at noon. The screening process is not intended to be censorship as such, but to insure a well-balanced series of questions being asked. Questions may be deposited at the information desk in the Student Center.

Major organizations in the first category include: Student Council, Inter-Fraternity Council, Men's Senate, Women's Residence Association, Alumni Hall Student Board of Directors, Young Republicans, Young Democrats, The Student League for Human Rights, and The Young Americans for Freedom.

Each of the above organizations may submit as many questions to the screening committee as they desire, but because of the time factor involved in the question and answer session, only one question may be asked of Senator Goldwater by each group. Each of the above organizations will be requested to sit at tables immediately in front of and to the side of the stage.

Dr. Justus M. Van der Kroef, Associate professor of sociology will serve as moderator of the session. Eugene Conroy, Student Council president, will ask the questions of Senator Goldwater which have been submitted by the student body. One member of each of the nine student organizations will be requested to ask a question on behalf of his group.

Members of the screening committee include: William Wright, Director of Student Activities, chairman Dr. Van der Kroef; Dr. Ralph H. Pickett, Associate Professor of History; Victor Muniec, Director of Public Relations; Marlon Hotchkiss, Director of Alumni Hall; Conroy; and Robert Mayer, Chairman, AHSBD.

Sweetheart Ball Plans Revealed

The social room of Alumni Hall will be the setting for this year's Sweetheart Ball to be held on Friday, February 16, 1962, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. Tickets may be obtained at the receipt desk in Alumni Hall during the week of Feb. 12.

The semi-formal affair will star Johnny Bond, featured vocalist and trumpet player with the Sammy Kaye Orchestra, and the evening will be highlighted by the crowning of the Campus Sweetheart.

The Campus Sweetheart will be elected by student balloting in Alumni Hall on Feb. 15 and 16 from seven finalists to be chosen at a formal tea which will be held on Feb. 11.

THE NEW YORK STOCK MARKET? NO, it's only the usual registration rush which took place on Jan. 29-31. Note the expression of frustration, anxiety and resignation, which seem to appear about this time every semester.

Give Us a Chance, Artie

Last Saturday I discovered that a soggy University envelope, normally used for inter-office mail, had been slipped mysteriously under the outer door of the Scribe office. Upon examination of same I found that Arthur Friesner, treasurer of the senior class, had favored us with a letter (see Vox Populi).

I read this letter, carefully noting the faulty punctuation, poor sentence and paragraph structure and general lack of literary understanding, as any "incompetent" editor would. I immediately questioned the fact that anyone so illiterate could have been elected treasurer of the senior class, but there was the signature in black and white at the bottom of the paper.

I decided that the letter should be published immediately, along with an answer to its charges, before Mr. Friesner has the entire Scribe staff, advisor, printer and engraver indicted. I also felt that the student body should be made aware of what has transpired on the Scribe during the past few weeks.

When Leonard Barlow, former editor of the Scribe, made his intention of leaving school known I, as copy editor, was next in line for the editorship. Jim Malerba was appointed co-editor because of his performances in a mass communications class and on the Scribe.

Due to Barlow's policy of putting out the paper largely on his own, a policy which has also been followed by editors in the past, the staff, including myself, did not receive the experience that most probably would have enabled us to keep up the normal standards of the Scribe from the beginning of the semester. We realize that the paper may be below par at the present but we hope to rectify this situation as soon as possible.

It is true that we were not appointed by the Advisory Board, but I am not aware of the reason for this. I would suggest that anyone interested in this point contact Victor E. Muniec, Advisor to the Scribe, or Prof. Howard B. Jacobson, Chairman of the Department of Journalism. The choice of editors has never been left up to the students, as Mr. Friesner would have it, because the student body would have little knowledge of who was qualified for the position.

I admit that the Scribe did help to foster interest in the political groups on campus last semester, and I feel that this interest is healthy for the students, but not on a one-sided basis. For this reason we will not comment editorially on the individual issues of these groups. However, we are considering a student poll to discover how much political interest really has been generated among the students. If the poll shows a positive interest it is very likely that we will reserve space for these groups to be heard on an equal basis.

Last week's paper included three letters concerning the student political controversy on campus which was carried over from last semester. We have not completely shied away from politics, Mr. Friesner, but we do not feel that one-sided editorial comment truly represents student opinion. Neither do we feel that by refusing to take a conservative or liberal stand we are initiating a "do-nothing" policy on the paper.

It is too bad that so many people, like Mr. Friesner, feel that a stand must be taken on everything, no matter what the issue or which side is taken. A stand on something is good if one is aware of the issues at hand and truly believes in that which he stands for. But to stand firmly for something that you do not believe in simply for the sake of providing controversy is against all the principles that this country was founded upon.

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA — A recent editorial page of the Daily Tar Heel was most noticeable for the large blank space in the middle of the usually full editorial column. The space was bounded at the top and bottom by the marks of a letter to the editor. Above it was a letter from Donald P. Will, Jr. of Durham and below was the editor's explanation for this strange "letter:"

"In his letter Will suggested that we should not have printed Charles Alan's letter condemning mental health programs because such a letter is 'misleading.' Our policy is to print all letters, regardless of viewpoint. We have adhered to this policy until now. But since Mr. Will has informed us that it is the duty of an editor to refuse to print misleading material, we have complied. We thought this letter was 'misleading.' So, we didn't print it. Should we continue this policy?"

NATIONAL UNION OF STUDENTS OF FINLAND — The much disputed and discussed Eighth World Youth Festival will be held in Helsinki, Finland, this summer. It is being organized by the International Union of Students and the World Federation of Democratic Youth, both communist-dominated organizations.

The National Union of Students of Finland declared that they would not participate in the festival or its preparations, because previous festivals had precipitated strong political conflicts. This decision by both the National Union and the Council of Finnish Youth Organizations (SNE), to which all Finnish youth groups belong, was reached by a majority of more than 90 per cent. The SNE is the only organization in Finland claiming to represent the youth of Finland nationally and internationally and is recognized as a representative body by the Finnish Government as well as foreign national and international organizations.

In spite of the feelings of the SNE and those expressed by the ex-minister of Finland, hoping that the organizers of the festival would "consider carefully whether it is well-founded to arrange the event on the basis of such scant domestic support," preparations for the festival have commenced in Helsinki. A U.S. Festival Committee has been organized to administer and encourage American participation in the festival. This committee stated in a press release that its constitution provides that it be a non-partisan body and that

Vox Populi

New Editors Are Incompetent Says Student

To the Editor:

When the SCRIBE came out this week I was amazed by the total lack of continuity and student interest. I cannot begin to imagine how any group, which is theoretically capable of putting out a newspaper, would put out a paper so totally lacking. The sports pictures were beautiful and the photographer is to be complimented, but is the Editor the photographer or is the advisor Mr. Muniec. While we're on this topic, why wasn't the choice of Editors left up to the students. It seems that all of a sudden there were new editors. I want to know why we weren't informed as to the availability of these positions. A paper is to represent student opinion. I strongly question the right of these editors to hold these positions. The Scribe Advisory Board is to choose the Editor of the paper. This board is made up of the Editor of the Scribe and is assistants, as well as the Vice President of Student Council. To my knowledge the Vice President, Mr. Gering, was never informed of the anticipated change by the Scribe. I would like to know WHY.

"The present editors feel that the Scribe is in existence only to serve the students at the University and is not meant to be a sounding-board for the various political groups which are active on the campus." Garbage! The interest that has been generated by the political activity on the campus in the fall semester has been fostered by the "sounding-board" Scribe. I think that Messrs. Hill and Malerba are either personally afraid to take any stand or that they have been placed in a situation where they are intimidated by the University administration. I fear that if this do nothing attitude is to continue, the Scribe will become a newspaper that no one will read.

Editors, if you want to represent student opinion. Represent it faithfully without fear of commentary or intimidation. Don't be afraid to stand up and be counted. I don't particularly care what you stand for, but dammit don't be afraid to stand for something. Thought is stimulated by controversy and discussion and if you are to be editors, and I question this, it is your duty to take a stand and allow discussion of it in your paper.

UB Accused Of Exploiting Student Body

To the Editor:

The University of Bridgeport is a "non-profit" educational institution chartered by the State of Connecticut and accredited. Their prime goal is to enhance the students both through academic advancements, cultural development and social activity. This all sounds good, but unfortunately it is not true. Last May we were asked to contribute to the new Student Center and this we did gladly. Now we are asked to contribute green stamps and pay for activities like bowling and pool. The University takes with one hand, smiling like Dr. Jekyll and knives with the other, like Mr. Hyde.

I do not like to be exploited, but exploited I am by those near-commercial rates charged. Does the University think that they can continually exploit the students in this method? We contributed to the Student Center so that we could benefit from it, not so that we could be forced to pay more money. Mr. Conroy reported in his column that Dr. Littlefield told him that $30 of the $80 General University Fee goes to Alumni Hall. Where does the money go? Certainly not to Alumni Hall.

STUDENT COUNCIL BEAT

by Gene Conroy
Student Council, President

The Student Council of this past semester has been one of the most active in the history of the University. Students, faculty, administration and the University family have all come to realize that the voice of the students shall be heard and reckoned with. This voice is a very powerful force and we believe that it has been channeled into a very constructive vein. Now as we review the past semester, it will serve as a reminder to Student Council members and the student body at large, that much has been accomplished and there is a great deal yet to be done. It is our obligation in the coming semester not to rest for a moment, but to strive for the greater good of the student body.

It is possible to mention many of the projects completed by Student Council, but I am sure that you have followed them all closely, through the tremendous coverage that the Scribe has given us in the past semester. Student Council has four goals which we consider of paramount importance. They are cooperation, communication, stimulation of student opinion and, most important, protection of student rights.

By cooperation we have succeeded in getting many campus organizations to work together, to support other programs and to give moral support to their stands. The Student Council has played a vital part by supplying financial aid and by acting as liaison between various groups and the administration.

We have attempted to improve communication from Council to you by initiating a column in the Scribe and distributing our minutes to a greater number of people. This communication plus the efforts of a few pressure groups on campus have started UB on the road to the greater realization of the position that students can and must play in the nation today. When major issues can be brought to the student body's attention through the disseminating of literature of opposition groups, then and only then may we have the opportunity to bask in the light of intellectual controversy.

We have been dedicated to the idea that student rights, as prescribed in the Student Council Constitution and the Student Bill of Rights must be protected at all costs. We pledge that in the future we will continue to step forward and fight whenever and wherever student rights are trampled upon.

While we are ready to aid all organizations, we have been careful not to place any organization in the position where it is totally dependent upon us. It is our confirmed belief that every organization must learn to stand alone, taking on responsibilities and striving for a goal. It is here that we feel we accomplish what a student government is set up for. Every individual must follow the great American tradition of being able to stand by himself.

To be specific for a moment, I would like to briefly review a few of the projects or stands that Council has taken during the course of the last semester. This will serve a twofold purpose: primarily, it will provide you with a review. Secondly, it will give you the opportunity to review the semester and make constructive suggestions that you feel will help Council in the future.

1. Student Council planned and coordinated Freshman Week.
2. Student Spirit Committee has raised school spirit.
3. The Who's Who selection procedures were raised to gain a better sampling of the population.
4. SC allocated some $22,000 to clubs and organizations.
5. SC planned and coordinated Homecoming 1961.
6. SC activated the long dormant National Student Association.
7. SC sent a delegation to the Collegiate Council for the United Nations in New York City.
8. SC has revised the Student Council Constitution for the greater good of the students.
9. SC has worked closely with the Scribe for the purpose of bringing information to the students.
10. SC acted against the inspection of men's housing.
11. SC supported the resumption of U.S. atomic testing.
12. SC passed a resolution in

NSA ON CAMPUS

by Gene Gordon
NSA Coordinator

Fact:

USNSA has in the past reflected the sympathy of the American student community for the goals of the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) by cooperating with that organization.

Principle:

USNSA has consistently affirmed the rights of all persons to engage in non-violent protest against segregation.

Declaration:

The University approves the goals and programs of the SNCC, and urges member student bodies and the national staff to assist that organization in any manner consistent with the mandates and constitution of the USNSA.

The SNCC mentioned in the above resolution is an organization formed by southern students in protest to the various forms of segregation practiced in the South. It proved its efficiency from the very beginning by supplying leadership for the sit-in campaigns. Presently it is organizing two great movements: One entails the testing by students of various public facilities to determine whether segregation prevails. In the event that they do encounter such practices they picket for a short time and move on to other establishments in the city. In the evening they meet with Negro leaders in the community and institute bi-racial committees, the purpose of which is to peacefully and rapidly implement integration. The success of this movement has been phenomenal.

Another and perhaps more interesting function of SNCC, is its voter registration drive. Students, in make-shift classrooms, are teaching Southern Negroes the basic information needed to register and vote. Courses include citizenship lectures and often reading and writing. These students-turned-teachers have been threatened, jailed, and violently beaten, but their work continues.

One of the most important problems SNCC faces is lack of funds with which to continue its valiant work. NSA has helped in this respect by forming the Southern Student Freedom Fund, SSFF, for the purpose of raising money to support the courageous Southern students.

To place UB on record as supporting SNCC (other NSA member schools have done so for four years) the resolution at the outset of this column will be brought before the Student Council next week.

Along Park Place

with ED COFFEY and LILA SOLDANI

Now that everyone is back on campus participating fully in scholastic and social activities, we would like to welcome Jim Malerba and Jim Hill as editors of the most widely circulated and criticized newspaper at UB: The SCRIBE! Good luck, fellas. Registration was jam-packed with close-outs, "creeper" cards, and more than 50 per cent of the students on pro. Last semester, obviously, was worse than "bad." This one promises to get better - no one can go any further down the ladder!

"The Student Center is badly in need of many articles of luxury," the campus agrees; but let's bring in those Triple-S and Green Stamps. Your $50 worth may buy a square inch of a new television set! The Alumni Hall Student Board of Directors congratulates Tom Daly and Sharon Felman who were recently elected treasurer and corresponding secretary, respectively. They (the Board) also urge you to attend the All-University Talent Show Friday evening. Awards of $25.00 and $10.00 will be presented to the lucky winners.

Rumor has it that the KBP skiing expedition to Vermont provided more than fun for the brothers. The question left unanswered is whether the "Nirobi Trio" of Carey, Brown and Liebrock went skiing or "sheing." Despite your answer, boys, which may be printed next week for all your fans, you should have a good year ahead with: Ed Carey, President; Al Churilla, Vice-President; John Lovell, Secretary; Jim Hill, Treasurer; Doug Marquis, Corresponding Secretary; Bill Green, Chaplain; Pete Gorman, IFC Representative; Jack Cunningham and Les Warren, Social Chairmen; Rudy Pasterczyk, Pledgemaster; Frank Pisano, Historian; and Thomas "Twig" Pandolfi, Sergeant-at-Arms.

And following you (because they are the "weaker sex" in legend only) are the sisters of Beta Gamma with: Lynn Ormsby, President; Jo-ann Lipton, Vice-President; Barb Saul, Corresponding Secretary; Maureen McGuire, Recording Secretary; Joyce Carpenter, Social Chairman; and Judy Hirsch, IFC Representative. A Public Announcement: BG's new freedom "rider" is Miss Jo-ann Lipton who can be reached at any time in Southport Hall!! Sorry, Jo.

Who was the tall, dark, and handsome gentleman who blackmailed Polly Borscelli (TE) last week? Did he really hold Sally Safko (TE) captive until Polly consented to dating him? He must have found it rather crowded when a detective and the entire Bridgeport police force joined Polly and him on their rendezvous. Wonder exactly what "Shag and Al" would have to say about this?

On the brighter side, Heather Carpenter had become quite left-handed lately. And she no longer greets you with the usual "Hi." Somehow, more sparkle has been added to her speech - her life - and her left hand. The best of luck to you and Tony.

From a honeymoon of dreams to the University of Reality came Bob Lesco and his new bride

Sunday morning. Quite a drastic change, but someone once said, "All's fair in love and war." Looks like there is going to be another (or should we say new?) wolf to hit the Bridgeport area.

Some of the more ardent pool players in the new Student Center are wondering if the ping pong tables which are to be placed in the poolroom could be billiard tables instead? How many girls in Darien Hall made the "Hips List" last week? Schiott Hall girls should take a lesson from the reporter who is always just around the corner from your gossiping remarks!!!

A newly pinned couple is Patty Long and Bob Llodra who are another imported romance from the "Summer of '61." The best of everything awaits the both of you as it did at Marina Circle. Don't forget to pick up your tickets for the Jacoby Lecture this year. No students will be admitted without these tickets.

POC was quite active in giving blood last week and didn't even receive recognition for their efforts. This is one of the congratulations for which they should be highly praised. The slip-up will not happen again, boys. Congrats. "Love conquers all" ... even the confused.

favor of the actions of the students at UCONN.

13. SC backed the Student League for Human Rights in their plans to hold a rally for CORE.

14. SC came out against the solicitation of funds by the parents Council.

This semester the Student Council will lead a program of evaluation of the National Student Association, which has a chapter on our campus. The conservative groups on many campuses have placed this group on the firing line, for they believe it does not truly represent the views of the students as a whole.

This year the Student Council election will be handled to bring out as many qualified and experienced candidates as possible. These candidates will be presented at a special convocation. If you have any desire to hold an office, you should start observing Council in action now.

This semester the Student Council will plan and set dates for Homecoming 1962 and Freshman Week. Student Council plans and executes Freshman Week, but why does the administration feel that we should be forced to pay for what is rightly not our responsibility?

Student Council will have the pros and cons of the Parents Council subsidy of teachers' salaries. Not only will we check on the Parents Council, but we will check on nationwide salaries and find out if our instructors are being paid enough.

These are a few of the goals of Student Council. We would like to have more of you come to our meetings that are held every Wednesday at 1 p. m. in Alumni Hall 203. A student government is only as effective as its leaders, but a school is as effective and as powerful as the interests and ability of the entire student body. We place a great deal of faith in you, for we would not put in the time and effort, if it were not for you. We attempt to satisfy your needs, meet your standards, and work to our fullest. We ask you to help us by reporting any infringement of your rights, any unjustified limitations and all suggestions that you feel would be of aid to us in carrying out our duties.

ON OTHER CAMPUSES

"nobody on behalf of the U.S. Festival Committee shall make any policy statement of a partisan nature."

Informed sources have pointed out that whenever possible the festival organizers are soliciting attendance for the festival on the grounds that it is a non-partisan representative youth rally. The Finnish statement and a number of other statements pertaining to this and to past festivals have declared this to be false.

POC Donates Most Blood In Recent Drive

On Jan. 10, the IFC Blood Bank collected 99 pints of blood. Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity helped set up the blood bank. The brothers of Pi Omega Chi won the IFC Blood Bank Plaque with 60 per cent of their active membership donating blood and nine independents giving in their name. Chi Sigma Delta and Chi Zeta Rho also did an outstanding job with approximately 35 per cent of each organization giving. Sororities and fraternities donated a total of 39 pints of blood, with sororities giving 17 and fraternities 22. A great number of independents supported the bank this year, giving a total of 59 pints, including 16 given in the name of a fraternal organization.

Student of the Week

Rona Davidowitz is a second semester freshman enrolled in the College of Business Administration. She has a deep interest in French as a background for her business studies. A native of Jersey City, New Jersey, Rona graduated from Henry Snyder High School where she served as recording secretary of her class, co-chairman of the senior activities committee, and as a member of the student service squad.

At the University she is the freshman representative to Women's Residence Association. She is an active member of the Alumni Hall Student Board of Directors and the Student Spirit Committee, for which she is the corresponding secretary. She was the director of the Mass Meeting skit for Cooper third, Norwalk Hall and Linden Hall. The group she helped took second place at the meeting.

Of her personal interests Rona says, "This summer I will attend the University of Aix-Marseilles in France to further my study of French and related subjects. I am an aspiring French interpreter and wish to employ my knowledge of French to a secretarial position in a foreign embassy or travel association located in the United States."

Rona is interested in starting an academic honor system on the campus. Although no steps have been taken to institute this system, Rona and a committee of girls from WRA have written to various universities practicing such a system, and are promoting a slow, long-range study designed to determine its possible use in the future.

UNIVERSITY DINNER

The University's eleventh annual All-University Dinner will take place on Feb. 23 at 6 p.m. in the new Student Center.

Dr. Daniel Chubbuck, Dana professor of education at the University, was active in educational meetings during the month of January, and took part in five major events.

Dr. Chubbuck participated in the evaluation of the Redding Elementary School, and following this, took part in the New England Conference on Educational Finance in Boston. He also served as consultant on President Kennedy's Council on Youth Fitness, which met in New York for two days.

Dr. Chubbuck was presiding officer at the meeting of the Connecticut Association of School Superintendents, of which he is president. And, finally he participated in the evaluation of the Easton Elementary School.

Dr. Chubbuck has been associated with the University since 1957. Previously, he taught at Southern Connecticut State College from 1949-50; Montana State University, in 1952; Trinity College, 1954-1955; and the University of Hartford, 1955-56. He left the position of superintendent of schools in Darien to accept his present post as Dana professor of education at the University.

Best Dressed Girl Selections This Sunday

Candidates for the "Best Dressed Girl on Campus" contest have been nominated by their respective groups and are now awaiting the final selection which will take place on Sunday, Feb. 11, at 2 p.m. in the private dining room of the Student Center.

The Best Dressed Girl selected on this campus will be entered in the national Best Dressed Girl contest, run annually by Glamour magazine, which selects the ten best dressed college girls from among the individual college winners. The ten national winners appear in Glamour's annual August college issue and spend two weeks in New York as guests of the magazine.

Sandy Staples was chosen "Best Dressed Girl on Campus" at the University last year. She was selected from the 29 girls who were nominated as candidates.

Alumni Fund Heads Recently Appointed

William E. Howe, a 1960 graduate of the College of Business Administration, and Robert J. Wright, a 1956 graduate of the College of Arts and Science, have been appointed chairman and associate chairman of the 1962 University Alumni Fund, William B. Kennedy of the Alumni News Service announced recently.

Last year 1,650 alumni gave $13,742.10 through the Alumni Fund program to exceed the 1,502 gifts for $12,171 made in 1960. This marks the fifth increase in regular fund support since annual alumni giving started in 1955. The special matching Benton Plan year of 1959 was the only time alumni gifts exceeded the current figure.

Since the inception of annual support in 1955 more than 8,500 gifts have been received, for a total of approximately $77,000. Average participation during the past three years has been 30 per cent.

The group will conduct its 1962 annual committee luncheon on Sunday, Feb. 18, in the Student Center.

STUDENT CENTER

Since the new Student Center has been open there has been a considerable amount of confusion concerning just what one is talking about when he speaks of Alumni Hall. As a result there have been several people in the Scribe office looking for used books.

To clarify this, it will be our policy in the future to speak of the new building as the Student Center or Alumni Hall; when speaking of the old building we will describe it as such: Old Alumni Hall or Old Student Center.

RUSSIA AND THE AFRICAN STATES

pay their share. Another and more likely problem will arise in that the African and Asian nations may refuse to bond assessment, thus supporting the Soviet stand.

While the Soviets have been sidestepping their responsibilities they have been pressing for more jobs in the Secretariat. Zorin has given U Thant a list of eighty jobs that he wants Soviets to hold, many of which now are held by Western nations. Should Thant yield to these demands he would be faced with equal and perhaps greater demands from the African and Asian nations.

Thus the Soviet Union has again placed Thant in a precarious position. Should he yield to these demands, he would face criticism from the West; if he should refuse these demands, he would be open to the same type of attack that was heaped on the late Dag Hammarskjöld.

These and many more are the ploys used by the Soviets to drag the U.N. off its peace course. According to Hamilton the tide has been stemmed a little, but we can be sure that it will continue.

Is this the only reason for using Mennen Skin Bracer?

Skin Bracer's rugged, long-lasting aroma is an obvious attribute. But is it everything?

After all, Menthol-Iced Skin Bracer is the after-shave lotion that cools rather than burns. It helps heal shaving nicks and scrapes. Helps prevent blemishes. Conditions your skin.

Aren't these sound, scientific virtues more important than the purely emotional effect Skin Bracer has on women? In that case, buy a bottle. And—have fun.

Soph Accepted at Graduate School

Two brothers from Barbados, West Indies, currently enrolled at the University, have been accepted at graduate schools for advanced study in the medical and dental fields, according to Dr. Clarence D.L. Ropp, dean of the College of Arts and Science.

William M. Thomas, 19, a sophomore at the University, and Eustice A. Thomas, 22, a senior, will enter graduate dental and medical schools, respectively, this fall.

It is only in rare instances that a first semester sophomore is accepted for graduate study in the dental field, Dr. Ropp observed. William has been accepted by the Temple University Graduate School of Dentistry and will begin classes in September. Eustice plans to attend the University of Florida's medical school following graduation in June.

Both brothers are dean's list students and are majors in biology in the College of Arts and Science.

Active in extra curricular activities, Eustice is president of the Circle-K Club, a campus service organization with membership restricted to outstanding students. He is also a member of the French Club, Physical Science Club, and the Biology Society. William is a member of the Biology Society.

Knights Drop Fourth Straight Game

by Dick Sharpe
Last Saturday the Bridgeport basketball team lost their fourth consecutive game and their eighth in the last ten outings to a Southern Connecticut State College five, 81-80, on the loser's court before a capacity crowd.

From the opening tap till the closing score the game was a thriller with neither team opening up a decisive lead in the scoring column.

The Purple Knights led throughout the first half with Danny Morello and Gary Notice pacing the attack. At halftime UB held a three point lead, 44-41. With the opening of the second half, SCSC began to score with consistency. After ten minutes had elapsed, Southern Connecticut, paced by Sal Dinicola, took the lead for the first time since the opening minutes of the first half.

With less than three minutes remaining in the game, Joe Troiano scored on a jump shot to put UB in the lead, 80-78. After a shot was taken by SCSC, the Knights took possession of the ball with just two minutes left in the game. At this time instead of "freezing" the ball with a two point lead, the UB five chose to shoot. The teachers promptly rebounded the ball and playmaker Dinicola scored two points to knot up the game. After UB failed to "hold" the ball for one last shot with the little time remaining, Southern Connecticut's Archie Tracy scored a foul shot to give the visitors an 81-80 lead. The Knights had one last opportunity to score with seconds to play but failed to capitalize.

Morello and Tracy took co-scoring honors, each having 29 markers. Four men hit double figures for UB besides Morello. Troiano scored 15, Rich Colonese registered 14, Notice netted 12, and Joe Yasinski tallied 10. Dinicola, besides scoring 23 point, sparked the upset victory over UB with his fine all-around play.

The University lost their third game in succession, this time to the Coast Guard Academy, 75-56, at New London, Connecticut, on Feb. 2.

The Coast Guardians sailed to a formidable halftime lead of 42-29 which they never relinquished. At the opening of the second half, Coach Gus Seaman started his "second team." After six minutes had elapsed, the Cadets had scored 13 straight points and had taken a commanding 55-29 lead.

Fred Schack starred for the Purple Knights by scoring 17 points. Morello, playing less than a half, scored only seven markers, which was well below his season average.

Dave Hastings was the game's leading scorer, dropping in nine field goals and five free throws for 23 points. Bob Pouchman tallied 13 points and playmaker Bob Leggett netted 12.

On January 26, the Knights traveled to New York City where they were trounced by the New York Athletic Club 92-75.

The Winged Footers were in command of the game from the opening tap. It was N.Y.A.C.'s tenth victory in twelve outings.

Joe Yasinski led the Purple Knights with 20 markers. Joe Troiano registered 19 points while Morello poured in 16.

Johnny O'Connor took game scoring honors with 25 points.

UB's overall record for the campaign is now five victories in 15 outings. Jumping Joe Yasinski and Dan Morello continue to lead the Knights in rebounding and scoring respectively. Morello's average for 15 games is 21.3, while Yasinski is second with a 14.8 per game average.

On Feb. 3, the junior Knights turned back a good Southern Connecticut State College team, 64-63, before a crowd of enthusiastic UB rooters. Joe Mandy registered two foul shots in the closing seconds to insure UB's fourth triumph in 11 games. Frank Pambello netted 14 points and Art Bernstein chipped in with 12.

The Coast Guard Academy's freshman squad edged the UB frosh, 60-58, last Friday in an exciting game which wasn't decided until the last minute of play. Joe Magdon led the yearlings with 14 points.

HYGIENISTS PRAISED AT CAPPING

rewards come not so much from financial gain as from a chance to serve people. Mrs. Brennan, who was a student in the Fones School 11 years ago, said that she could appreciate the feelings of the girls, and added that the Connecticut Dental Hygienists' Association was proud of them.

The last speaker was Dr. Strang, who received a standing ovation from the dental hygiene students when he stood up to speak. He outlined past events of the dental hygiene school and went on to praise both the faculty of the school and Dana, who, he said, made all the advancements possible. He added that it takes loyalty, cooperation and efficiency to make everyone's work easier. Dr. Strang concluded his address by reading a humorous poem entitled "Ode to a Dental Hygienist," written by Dr. Hooten of Harvard University.

The capping of the freshman class followed Dr. Strang's speech. Members of the faculty who participated in the ceremony were Mabel McCarthy, Mrs. Frances E. Dolan, Mrs. Charles F. Spillito, Mrs. John Larson and Valerie West, president of the freshman hygiene class, who thanked everyone involved with the program for all their help and cooperation.

Along with the capping ceremony was the pinning of the sophomore class, with Lucy Schmitke, president of the class, presiding.

The program closed with a short talk by Dr. Dana, who was also warm in his praise for the dental hygienists and the work that they have done. Benediction was given by Rabbi Sanford M. Shapero.
